9. Activity Report and Outcome of the Workshop:

Introduction:

The workshop on Sanskrit and World Literature aimed to explore the influence of Sanskrit literature on global literary traditions and foster a deeper understanding of its significance. The event brought together scholars, researchers, and enthusiasts of literature from diverse backgrounds.

Activities:

- 1) Welcome Address: The workshop commenced with a welcome address by Dr. Swagata Das Mohanta, Hon'ble Principal, Chakdaha College, highlighting the rich literary heritage of Sanskrit and its impact on world literature. The speech provided a broad overview of Sanskrit literature and its relevance in a global context.
- 2) Paper Presentations: Several participants presented papers on various aspects of Sanskrit and its connections to world literature. Topics covered included comparative analysis of Sanskrit texts with works from other traditions, cross-cultural influences, and the role of translation in making Sanskrit literature accessible to a wider audience.
- 3) Panel Discussions: Panel discussions were held to facilitate in-depth conversations and the exchange of ideas. Distinguished scholars and experts shared their perspectives on the topic, addressing questions and engaging in lively discussions with the participants.
- 4) Workshops and Interactive Sessions: The workshop included interactive sessions and workshops to provide participants with hands-on learning experiences. These sessions focused on Sanskrit language learning, translation techniques, and the exploration of specific Sanskrit texts.

Outcomes:

1. Enhanced Understanding: The workshop deepened the participants' understanding of Sanskrit literature and its connections to world literature. It highlighted the profound impact of Sanskrit texts on diverse literary traditions and fostered an appreciation for the cultural and intellectual contributions of Sanskrit.

Activity Report and Outcome of the Workshop:

2. Collaborative Opportunities: The event facilitated networking and collaboration among scholars and researchers interested in Sanskrit and world literature. Participants were able to establish connections and explore potential joint projects or research initiatives.

3. Increased Awareness: The workshop helped raise awareness about the importance of preserving and studying Sanskrit literature. Participants gained insights into the challenges faced in the preservation, translation, and dissemination of Sanskrit texts and discussed strategies for promoting wider access to this rich literary heritage.

4. Publication Opportunities: Selected papers from the workshop will be compiled and published in an edited volume or a special issue of a relevant academic journal. This will allow the insights and research presented during the workshop to reach a broader audience and contribute to the existing body of knowledge in the field.

Conclusion:

The workshop on Sanskrit and World Literature successfully created a platform for scholarly discussions, knowledge exchange, and collaborative exploration. It fostered a deeper appreciation for the cultural and literary significance of Sanskrit and its influence on world literature. The outcomes of the workshop are expected to have a lasting impact on the study and promotion of Sanskrit literature in a global context.
